FELINE HISTORY ON DISPLAY AT CFA INTERNATIONAL CAT SHOW IN ATLANTA

The CFA Foundation booth will introduce their new feline historical collection booth at the CFA International Cat Show in Atlanta, GA on November 21-23, 2008.

The CFA foundation is charged with collecting the history of the cat and the cat fancy. Their goal is to have a display at several major cat shows across the country, and to eventually set up a museum for their extensive collection.

This year, the booth will have several cat books that are over a century old, each with numerous illustrations throughout them including a color lithograph of an early Abyssinian; a variety of 1880-1900 trade cards that incorporate cats to advertise products; photos taken at the 1967 CFA annual awards banquet; and a photographic history of the various locations of Central Office throughout the years. A display of unique magazine advertising from 1900 through 2006 that used cats to complement products will be available, as well as several cat figurines from various countries around the world. Highlighted will be a late mid-1890's cat show awards.

We invite attendees to come spend a few minutes with us. The CFA Foundation booth can be found in booth 229-231.
